

WELLINGTON
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Community
Business Directory

Message from the Wellington Chamber

We welcome you to the very first of its kind QR Code Directory produced by Sanctum Publishing & Marketing, Ltd for the Wellington Chamber of Commerce!

1. Make sure your phone can scan a QR code with its camera, either with an application that you download or via software that's already installed on your phone. To find out what application to use for your phone, we recommend doing a Google search for the model of your phone along with "QR reader".
2. When you see a QR code, use your phone's application to scan it. If you're scanning a QR code on one of the window decals that we've sent to thousands of U.S. businesses, you'll quickly be taken to that business' mobile Place Page on Google.

This cutting edge technology was introduced to the Chamber by the Sanctum Publishing & Marketing, Ltd and we are thrilled to now offer it to you

The Wellington Chamber of Commerce has taken a leadership role in bringing the diversity of our village to current residents and businesses as well as the thousands of calls we get each year from potential additions to our community, whether it be commercial or residential.

We are the first contact for newcomers to our area and we strive to stay up to date with the Village of Wellington to make certain that what our community has to offer is readily available to those already here and those who are inquiring.

It is our pleasure to offer you a glimpse of the diverse businesses in the diverse community that we live, work and play!

So whether you are coming to visit or to live, we at the Chamber and the Sanctum Publishing & Marketing, Ltd offer our sincerest welcome. We hope you enjoy this innovative guide to Wellington and we encourage you to patronize our businesses when you shop or do business in Wellington. Please stop by or give us a call for additional information or you can visit us at

Best,
Michela Perillo-Green
Executive Director

ABOUT QR CODES & SCANLIFE™

A QR Code is a matrix barcode (or two-dimensional code), readable by QR scanners, mobile phones with a camera, and smartphones. The code consists of black modules arranged in a square pattern on white background. The information encoded can be text, URL or other data.

QR Codes storing addresses and URLs may appear in magazines, on signs, buses, business cards, or on just about any object about which users might need information. Users with a camera phone equipped with the correct reader application can scan the image of the QR Code to display text, contact information, connect to a wireless network, or open a web page in the phone's browser. This act of linking from physical world objects is known as a hardlink or physical world hyperlinks. Google's mobile Android operating system supports the use of QR codes by natively including the barcode scanner (ZXing) on some models and the browser supports URI redirection, which allows QR Codes to send metadata to existing applications on the device.

Using your smartphones web browser, you just type in www.getscanlife.com and download the free APP, and within seconds the icon appears in your APP's menu. Once the software appears on your phone, you merely take a photo of the QR coded square box, either on a business card or advertisement, and follow the prompts to place the coded data into your contacts section of your phone. All of the data then appears instantly into your contacts. It may contain; name, address, phone #, email address, website or any other information the advertiser wants you to know.

It's as easy & quick as that.

PAELLA GRILL

Preparing Paella in Spain is a very personal experience. Everybody does it differently and many towns and social clubs have paella-cooking contests during festivities and social events. We are carrying on this tradition in the U.S. by bringing this dining experience to your home or place of business and are very happy to provide the delightful culinary experience offered when one watches the preparation on their premises. The food couldn't be fresher.

(We provide services from Port St Lucie to South Miami at no additional cost. Will travel farther at reasonable rates)
